✓ Manuscripts preparation guidelines

Authors are required to format their manuscript using the IETE template. To download the template, CLICK HERE. You will receive a downloaded template. The length of the manuscript should not exceed six journal pages after formatting. The word file should be used when uploading the manuscript.

Manuscripts which do not follow the IETE template format will be returned to the authors. SI units should be used where possible and listed consecutively. All references must be listed in the following manner:

Reference to a journal paper

[1] A. Rahman, J. Guo, S. Datta, and M. S. Lundstrom, "Theory of ballistic nanotransistors," IEEE Trans. Electron Devices, vol. 51, pp. 1153-1160, 2004.

Reference to a conference paper:

[2] J. Wang and M. Lundstrom, "Does source-to-drain tunneling limit the ultimate scaling of MOSFETs?" in International Electron Devices Meeting, San Francisco, Dec. 2002, pp. 707 - 710.

Reference to a book:

[3] S. Datta, Quantum Transport: Atom to Transistor, Cambridge University Press, 2005.

All reference must be shown as numbers in a square bracket and must be listed in the same order as given in the list of references.

All tables must be given suitable captions and must be numbered consecutively.

Note on plagiarism:

All authors must note that plagiarism is an unethical activity. Authors must ensure that the contents of their manuscript are original and free about plagiarism and to know about our editorial policy on plagiarism, Click Here

Copyright

Authors are required to transfer the copyright to IETE once the manuscript is accepted. All the authors should sign the copyright form and the copyright form duly filled-in and signed should be uploaded in the system in 'Article Cycle' page.

Manuscript Length & Processing

The length of a manuscript should be of 6 Journal pages including Figures, References, Authors' Bios and Photos. If the manuscript exceeds 6 pages, the Authors will be charged Rs.1000/- (for Indian Authors) and USD 50 (for Foreign Authors) per page exceeding the limit of 6 pages.

We expect to complete the review process within about 3 months. Authors will be intimated about the acceptance/rejection of the manuscript. If the manuscript requires a revision, authors need to prepare a point-by-point response to the reviewers' comments and submit the revised manuscript. Authors are given 4 – 6 weeks for submitting the revision. Authors can monitor the progress of their manuscript using the author's account. Authors can also contact the handling Editor for any questions regarding their manuscript.
